Nobis hats

Hit the slopes (or the streets) this season with chic toques from Canadian brand Nobis. Made from knitted wool, they're lined with faux fur, satin or fleece, to prevent any itchininess or discomfort. From beanies to fedoras, there's one in every style. Hat hair? Don't mind if we do. $35-$120.

TEST DRIVE

Body moisturizers

Our pick of the best winter skin soothers.

1. Nivea Happy Time Body Lotion, $8 (400 mL). Made with bamboo milk and orange blossom, it has a fruity scent that's a hit with our testers. It loses points for feeling a bit sticky. Rating: 3/5

2. Vaseline Sheer Infusion Vitamin Body Lotion with Stratys 3, $9 (200 mL). This long-lasting citrus-floral lotion contains three moisturizing ingredients. It absorbs quickly, but we don't love the film it leaves behind. Rating: 3/5

3. Palmer's Shea Butter Formula with Vitamin E, $7 (400 mL). This old-school balm moisturizes with natural shea butter and vitamin E. It isn't greasy and the tropical scent is a zingy bonus. Rating: 4/5

4. Lubriderm Advanced Therapy Moisturizing Cream, $15 (453 g). With omega-3s, shea butter and petroleum, this one moisturizes well, but is a little heavy for all-over use. Keep it to your rough elbows and knees. Rating: 4/5

5. Olay Quench Advanced Relief Body Lotion, $9 (350 mL). Our winner: This cream absorbs easily, and since it's also fragrance free, it's perfect for those with sensitive skin. Rating: 5/5

TIP FILL IN LIPS WITH A NEUTRAL LINER BEFORE APPLYING GLOSS SO THAT WHEN THE GLOSS WEARS OFF, THE COLOUR REMAINS
